TREASURES FOR SALE

TABLES AND PAINTINGS BY ED DEFENDER

Ed Defender was a full blood Standing Rock Sioux. He created scenic and contemporary situations with modern watercolors on paper, and was known for his "Indian Humor". Ed was a graduate of the Institute of American Indian Art, Santa Fe, NM and received many awards for his work. Ed died at the age of 48. I was blessed to have known him.

"THE HORSE DANCERS ARE HERE"
FIRST PLACE
Northern Plains Tribal Arts
Sioux Falls, SD
SECOND PLACE
Gathering of Indian Artists
Grand Junction, CO

Ed made this table using wooden pegs and it is hand painted. The underside of the table is home to a buffalo herd.

Oak Table 22" by 60" $7000

The following paintings by Ed are also for sale. All are beautifully framed.

| Grandmas and Aunties | 13" by 20" | Price: $ | 1900 |
|-------------------------------|------------|-----------|------|
| Indian Women of the City | 27" by 20" | | 2700 |
| No One Will Bother Us Tonight | 27" by 30" | | 4000 |
| Running Around In My Dreams | 19" by 28" | | 4000 |
| Racing Around In The Camp | 19" by 28" | | 5000 |
| Bird Shit (perhaps his last) | 23" by 35" | | 5000 |

Everything is on display at Miriam's Well.

A pictorial Bibliography of Shows and Awards is available.

ALSO:

Story & Clark Upright Piano for sale. Great Sound. $1900.00